1 A SHORT SUBJECTIVE RETROSPECTIVE

92 shows on three continents, two albums, two videos and a couple of guest appearances says it all! The busiest man in show business. Unfortunately it seemed that quality was sacrificed for quantity. The new record was for many people not only surprisingly different, both musically and lyrically, but also very disappointing artistically. The promotional video made for Unbelievable is virtually impossible to distinguish from the usual worthless MTV output. The shows, finally, were very uneven, from the wonderful run in Paris and London in January-February and the magnificent set of shows, mostly in Canada, in May-June to the rather bleak late summer tour with "live auditioning" with a number of different guitarists. The year ended with Dylan on the road with a band where G. E. Smith had been replaced by two guitarists, none of which could or would play lead guitar!

2 THE YEAR AT A GLANCE

3 CALENDAR

- Early January Under The Red Sky recording sessions in Los Angeles with Stevie Ray Vaughan results in four songs.
- 12 January Toad's Place, New Haven, Connecticut. 4 hours. Many covers, first time songs, requests taken with a smile. This is really a long public rehearsal and no acoustic set is included.
- 14 January Another semi rehearsal show, this time at the Recreation Hall, Penn State, State College in Pennsylvania. Again all electric. Before performing Wiggle Dylan says "this is from the new album", which was very hard to believe at the time.
- 15 January McCarter Theater, Princeton University, Princeton, NJ. The acoustic set was played right after the opening number, an interesting variation of the old format. This was not to be repeated however, the rest of the shows were played electric - acoustic - electric as before. A pity.
- 18 January First show ever in South America takes places at the Estadio Cicero Pompeu de Toledo (Morumbi Stadium), Sao Paulo, Brazil. Dylan and others play to 90,000 people.
- 25 January Sambodromo, Rio de Janero, Brazil. Five songs from this show are broadcast on Brazilian TV.
- 29 January Release of single Political World/Ring Them Bells.
- 29 January A four night residence starts at the Rex Theater, Paris, France.
- 30 January Flashback, the soundtrack album to the movie Flashback, is released on CD, vinyl and cassette. It contains a new version of People Get Ready, evidently done with John Cougar Mellencamp during the fall Political World video sessions.
- 30 January Dylan is given the French award Commander of Arts and Letters. He reads from a piece of paper "a thousand thanks" in French and then translates.
- 1 February Dylan and Leonard Cohen meet in a café in the 14th Arrondissement. When talking about songwriting, Dylan claims to have written I And I in 15 minutes!
- 3-8 February Six nights at the Hammersmith Odeon, London, England concludes this part of the Never-Ending Tour, appropriately called "The Fastbreak Tour".
- 24 February At a Roy Orbison tribute at the Universal Amphitheater in Los Angeles a rumored appearance by the Traveling Wilburys turns out to be Bob Dylan joining the re-united Byrds for three songs.
- February Two four track CD singles are released in the UK. The first is a picture disk and contains Political World, Carribbean Wind, You're A Big Girl Now and It's All Over Now, Baby Blue. The last three songs are all taken from Biograph. The second CD single has in addition to Political World, Ring Them Bells, Silvio (from Down In The Groove) and All Along The Watchtower (from Dylan & The Dead).

- 1 March Bob Dylan makes another surprise appearance at a Tom Petty concert at The Forum in Los Angeles.
- 2 March According to Edna Gundersen in USA Today, Oh Mercy now nears 1 million sold copies worldwide.
- 8 March Rolling Stone Magazine devotes a full page to give a positive review of Dylan's club date at Toad's.
- 16 March Backed by David Lindley and members from Was (Not Was) a new "live in the studio" version of Most Of The Time is recorded and filmed, resulting in a promotional video. The soundtrack is released on a promo CD only.
- March – April Under The Red Sky recording sessions in Los Angeles.
- Early April George Harrison gets a phone call from Bob Dylan:
 Bob: When are we doing another Wilburys record?
 George: Why? Do you want to?
 Bob: Yeah, don't you?
 George: Yeah, I do.
 Nothing to do Bob?
- April Recording sessions with The Traveling Wilburys, now consisting of Bob Dylan, George Harrison, Jeff Lynne and Tom Petty. The sessions, that take place at "the Wilbury Mountain Studio". in Beverly Hills, result in fifteen tracks. One of them, Nobody's Child, is released as a single and is also included on the Romanian Angel Appeal album. Another eleven tracks are later included in the Wilbury album released in October.
- 27 May The Never-Ending Tour continues with a 16-date tour of North USA and Canada. Backing band is the same but the acoustic set is augmented with Garnier on acoustic stand-up bass and Parker on "soft" drums. This means that the entire band is on stage for the whole show. The set contains an acoustic version of Desolation Row. Last but not least, Dylan starts talking between songs again, first time since 1986 really!
- 11 June Release of Nobody's Child single.
- 19 June Shot Of Love is at last released on compact disc. The disc contains Groom Still Waiting At The Altar, thus being a release of the "new version" of Shot Of Love from 1986.
- 24 June Shooting of the Unbelievable promo video in the Mojave desert with Molly Ringwald and Sally Kirkland.
- 27 June Dylan's shortest ever tour of Europe starts with a show in Reykjavik, Iceland. The rest of the tour consists of shows that are part of summer rock and jazz festivals. Other acts include Mano Negra, Jeff Healy Band, Lenny Kravitz, Ry Cooder, Sinéad O'Connor, Midnight Oil and The Cure.
- 26 July Release of the Romanian Angel Appeal album including Traveling Wilbury's Nobody's Child.
- Summer Michael Bolton and Dylan write Steel Bars in Malibu.

- August Saved is released on compact disc. This is the only CD that does not have the original cover. Instead of the "fingers" cover the later "harmonica blowing" cover is used. Both Shot Of Love and Saved are remastered to very good result!
- August Together with his cousin Beth Zimmerman Dylan starts a clothing shop for children up to 10 in Beverly Hills. Name? Forever Young of course!
- 12 August Yet another leg of the Never-Ending Tour is kicked off with a show in Edmonton, Canada. The big news this time is that G.E. Smith prepares to leave the band after more than two years and 200 concerts. During the remainder of this "late summer tour" a number of new guitarist are auditioned live on stage, as it were. John Stahaeley, Steve Bruton, Miles Joseph and even the old cohort from 1981, Steve Ripley, are tried out together with G.E. Smith.
- 23 August The Zimmerman house in Hibbing, Minnesota is sold to anonymous party for an undisclosed amount.
- 27 August Stevie Ray Vaughan is killed in a helicopter crash near East Troy, Wisconsin, after having appeared as a guest at an Eric Clapton concert in Alpine Valley.
- In an article in USA Today, Dylan is quoted as saying: "He was a sweet guy. Something else was coming through him besides his guitar playing and singing" Preparing to play a show near Chicago, Dylan said: "It's almost like having to play the night that Kennedy died. He'll probably be revered as much as and in the same way as Hank Williams".
- At the show the next evening in Merrillville, Dylan dedicates Moon River to Stevie!
- 11 September Release of Under The Red Sky.
- 12 September Late Summer Tour ends with a show in Mesa, Arizona. At this time Dylan's guitar technician César Diaz is playing guitar with G.E. Smith! With the exception of the early version of Wiggle Wiggle in January, no songs from the new record had been played live at the end of this tour.
- 14 September Edna Gunderson (who else?) interviews Dylan in Lincoln, Nebraska. on August 31st. The cover story printed in USA Today is entitled "Rock icon is happy with his place", and quotes Dylan describing the title track of the new album as "intentionally broad and short, so you can draw all kinds of conclusions". We sure did.
- September Release of Unbelievable promo video and compact disc.
- Release of Unbelievable/10,000 Men single.
- Release of CD-single with Unbelievable, 10,000 Men, with In The Summertime and Jokerman, the last two in album versions.
- October Bob Dylan launches his own record label. It is called "Strikin' It Rich" and the first release is apparently Christmas Party With Eddie G! The label is supposed to release rare and interesting R&B material.
- 8-10 October Rehearsals take place at the Montana Studios, in New York City. Songs tried included: Shelter From The Storm, Wiggle Wiggle (a slow version), 10,000 Men, Under The Red Sky, 2 x 2, Masters Of War, Man In The Long Black Coat, In The Garden, The Water Is Wide, I Shall Be Released, Unbelievable (four tries), Shooting Star, Just Like A Woman, Maggie's Farm.

- 11 October This year's last, and fifth tour starts with a show at the C.W. Post College at the Long Island University. The greatest surprise time is that there are no surprises! G.E. Smith is still with the band, Steve Bruton is now second guitarist together with César Diaz. As expected the audience is treated with a couple of songs from the new album: Under The Red Sky and T.V. Talkin' Song.
- 12 October At the next show at Springfield, Mass. we get to hear Wiggle Wiggle. It turns out that no other songs from Under The Red Sky are played during this tour, not even his single Unbelievable.
- 13 October West Point, New York. The fact that Dylan gives a concert at this military university and also plays Masters Of War creates headlines on papers all over the world, even in remote places like Carlisle and Stockholm.
- 15-19 October For the third year in row Dylan returns to New York City for a series of shows, again at the Beacon Theatre. Now it's G.E. Smith, John Stahealey and César Diaz who are playing guitar alternately. These shows turned out to be G.E. Smith's last with the band. The rest of the tour is done with Stahealey and Diaz.
- 25 October At the show in Oxford, Mississippi, Dylan starts with My Head's In Mississippi, the current ZZ Top single! Even more astonishing, as a result from a request, we get a live debut: Oxford Town!
- 30 October Release of Traveling Wilburys Vol. III.
- 7 November Edna Gundersen from USA Today again manages to interview Dylan, this time about the Wilbury's new album.
- 18 November Another year of intense, almost constant, touring ends with a show at The Fox Theater in Detroit. The show opens with another live debut, Buckets Of Rain.
- November Dylan endorses Rabbi Mani Friedman's book "Doesn't Anyone Blush Anymore? Reclaiming Intimacy, Modesty and Sexuality" and is quoted on the jacket: "Anyone who'd either married or thinking of getting married would do well to read this book".

4 RECORDINGS

Here's a list of recordings from 1990 other than concerts. For details please refer to the corresponding session pages in Still On The Road.

Early January	First Under The Red Sky Sessions
24 February	Roy Orbison Tribute
1 March	Guest appearance at a Tom Petty concert
16 March	Shooting of Most Of The Time promo video
March–April	Second Under The Red Sky Sessions
April	The Traveling Wilburys Sessions

5 NEW TAPES

Below is a list of new "old" tapes that surfaced during 1990:

20 January 1973 Mexico City	60 minute session tape featuring the long rumoured song Goodbye Holly , and two new versions of Billy .
30 January 1974 New York City	A new 90 minute PA tape from the show at the Madison Square Garden. This is the first 90 minutes including The Band's first set.
17 September 1978 New Haven	A new more complete soundcheck tape containing Thisaway , Thataway and an unidentified song.
10 November 1981 New Orleans	“The Lanois PA-tape” contains the show at the Saenger Performing Arts Center with 23 out of 28 songs. Lanois did this mix when they selected Dead Man Dead Man for single release with Everything Is Broken . A must!
1 July 1984 Paris	A new PA version including a complete version of Every Grain Of Sand .
July 1984 Paris, London	The so called "Real Live Outtakes", mixed at Slane. PA tracks from the last part of the 1984 tour.
24 July 1984	One track, 'Honey Wait', from an unidentified session with Al Green.
10 or 11 July 1985 New York City	The so called "Live Aid Rehearsal Tape". Twenty minutes of guitar strumming, chatting and occasional playing of Ballad Of Hollis Brown , Girl From The North Country and Blowin' In The Wind by Bob, Ron & Keith. At one time Dylan even starts playing Trouble !
19 October 1988 New York City	First 90 minutes of the last of the four glorious Radio City Music Hall concerts in great PA-quality.

Cat's In The Well	Perth 18 March 1992

7 THE NEVER-ENDING TOUR: THIRD YEAR

7.1 Introduction

The never-ending tour continued 1990 with no less than five new legs:

1. The Fastbreak Tour during January and February
2. Spring Tour during May and June
3. Summer Festival Tour in Europe during June and July
4. Late Summer Tour during August and September
5. Fall Tour during October and November.

The so called Fastbreak Tour was a strange series of dates on three continents. First three warm-up gigs in US (a technique Dylan has used before on two occasions, 1978 and 1981), his first ever shows in South America, one in San Paolo and one in Rio de Janeiro, then four in Paris and finally six in London. The Dylan staff T-shirts in London had "1990 World Tour" on them, so it seemed that this leg was indeed only the beginning of 1990's touring.

After a break of three months, in which Dylan recorded two albums and one video, the tour started up again in late May, this time with a string of dates in Canada and the north of US. The musicians were the same once again, despite rumors that G.E. Smith had left. There are three remarkable things about this leg:

1. The acoustic set is revitalized by keeping the band on stage and having Garnier playing acoustic bass and Parker playing "acoustic drums". This is having a great effect on the more up-tempo acoustic songs like It's Alright, Ma (I'm Only Bleeding)'.
2. Dylan starts talking to the audience between songs!!! First time this happens is at the second show in Toronto as a response to extremely bad and extremely unjust reviews to the first show. Having rediscovered the delight of communicating with the audience also between songs this practice continued more or less during the remainder of the 1990 shows.
3. Dylan's singing. If playing the guitar seemed to be as important as his singing during the Fastbreak Tour, this time singing seemed to be his primary concern! Songs are sung like never before with improvised melodies and sometimes long "opera" endings. This is far from the raspy voice he's using on Under The Red Sky and Traveling Wilburys and, unfortunately (and strangely), very little of it is heard after this leg.

With little more than a week's rest the tour continues in Europe with only nine dates, mostly at the summer rock festivals. First date is in Reykjavik, Iceland, and he has now played in all Northern European countries! The shows are the same in structure and song selection, but somewhere some of the energy and the joy seem to have been lost and the shows are with a few exceptions rather uninspired.

The fourth part of the Never-Ending Tour started up with a show in Edmonton, just a month after the last European show in Montreux in Switzerland. This turned out to be one of the strangest set of showed Bob Dylan ever played. G.E. Smith had apparently given in his notice sometime during the summer and to select a replacement, a number of guitarists played with G.E. Smith and the band at a number of shows, auditioning live at stage as it were. At the last shows even his guitar technician César Diaz played a couple of shows!

After another month-long break, during which the new album Under The Red Sky was released, the fifth and last leg started in Greenvale, New York. The replacement issue was obviously still unresolved, since the live auditioning continued with Steve Bruton and John Staehely. César Diaz now seemed to be permanently in the band. G.E. Smith played his last show October 19 at the Beacon Theatre in New York City and Dylan continued touring with two guitarists, John Staehely and César Diaz, neither playing lead guitar!

The structure of the shows stayed the same till the end of the fall tour.

7.3 The show

The shows were structured in the same way as in 1988-1989:

6-7 electric songs
3-5 acoustic songs
4-6 electric songs

1 acoustic encore
1 electric encore.

The only exceptions to this are the three warm up shows in January before the shows in Brazil. Some shows during the last two legs started with short instrumental, often only a few bars.

Guest appearances

At the second night in Toronto, Ronnie Hawkins enters the stage, hollering KEEP THE WOMEN BACK, KEEP THE WOMEN BACK! and then tries to sing One More Night, a song that the band can't play and to which the Ol' Hawk has forgotten most of the words. It is said that Dylan lip-synched the words without actually singing them. A memorable moment.

Recommended shows

Montreal 29 May, La Crosse 12 June, Bismarck 15 June.

⁶ a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order. Cuyahoga Falls, July 9 and Harrisburg, July 11 are identical!

⁷ a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

⁸ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

⁹ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

¹⁰ variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

Songs

Desolation Row is played for the first time during the Never-Ending Tour and is kept in the set, played now and then, during the remainder of the year. Dylan always sings the first and last verse and a couple of the other verses seemingly at random.

Shooting Star is the last song from Oh Mercy to be played live. Oh Mercy becomes the third album ever, from which all songs are played in concert.

No More One More Time a new cover, described as a real tear-jerker giving Dylan several opportunities to try out his "new" voice.

Selected BobTalk

Somebody told me this is Groucho Marx's birthday ... This is for you Groucho wherever you are. (before Highway 61 Revisited in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, 29 May 1990).

Well, here's another song where the harmonica is played at the end. There used to be a bunch of girls that sang with me. Instead of the harmonica. They decided that we tried to play the harmonica for a while and they stayed home! Anyway, there was an article written in the paper about me saying that the girls should come back and the harmonica should go! (booing from the audience) Well, nobody showed me that, but they sure told me about it though. Anyway, the girls might be back next time, ... but I should be able to play harmonica on this one, right? (YEEAAAH!) (before Boots Of Spanish Leather in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, 2 June 1990).

There are empty seats down here if you want to get up close. ...Yeah, they're comin' up now, they're comin' up now! (before One Too Many Mornings in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, 5 June 1990).

Thank you! This is my version of a Leonard Cohen song called Suzanne. (before What Was It You Wanted in East Troy, Wisconsin, 9 June 1990).

Thank you! Nice to be here in Winnipeg! Winnipeg's got to be an incredible city. Any place Neil Young grew up in has got to be an incredible place. (after Tears Of Rage in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, 17 June 1990).

Selected BobTalk

Wouldn't be so bad to die by guillotine, lots of worse ways to go... (after It's Alright, Ma in Sandvika, Norway, 30 June 1990).

Thank you!! Danke Schön! A lot of people in America, they're concerned about Germany reuniting, but when you think about it, why should they ever been disunited, really? A lot of people, they don't know that Hitler wasn't German anyway! (before Gotta Serve Somebody in Hamburg, Germany, 3 July 1990).

¹¹ a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order.

¹² a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

¹³ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

¹⁴ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

¹⁵ variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

In case you're wondering what happens to people like me, here's a song that's gonna tell you about it. (before Old Rock & Roller in Hamburg, Germany, 3 July 1990).

Sitting On The Dock Of The Bay	Otis Redding
Moon River	dedicated to Stevie Ray Vaughan
Friend Of The Devil	The Grateful Dead
Stand By Me	old spiritual (?)
Willing	Little Feat
Blame It On Me	??

Starting in Falcon Heights in Minnesota, many shows opened with a short instrumental, during this leg Marine Hymn and in one case Ol' MacDonald.

Other notable selections:

Joey	second time in 1990, common during the fall tour
Tomorrow Is A Long Time	unusual electric version
Mama, You Been On My Mind	first time acoustic with band

Selected BobTalk

Thank you! This song Joan Baez always used to like. She said "keep singing this song, boy, and you're gonna be a star". (before Blowin' In The Wind in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, 15 August 1990).

Everybody's told that the Devil is buried in Stonehenge. That's what has inspired this song. (before Gotta Serve Somebody in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, 16 August 1990).

Everybody here knows about Stevie so ... So this one's for Stevie. Wherever you are Stevie. (plays Moon River, Merrillville, Indiana. 27 August 1990).

Recommended shows

Springfield 12 October, New York City 18 October and Oxford 25 October.

Guests

The sax player in Lenny Kravitz' band, Carl Denson, played tenor saxophone on Gotta Serve Somebody and Masters Of War on 18 October in New York City and on Gotta Serve Somebody, All Along The Watchtower and Maggie's Farm on the final night in New York 19 October. On the last song Lenny Kravitz and the rest of his band came onstage and played guitars and percussion.

²¹ a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order.

²² a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

²³ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

²⁴ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

²⁵ variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

Songs

The song selection remained mostly the same during the last leg of the year, possibly due to the "guitarist problem". Notable exceptions were:

Buckets Of Rain	a live debut!
Clean-Cut Kid
Detroit City	made famous by Bobby Bare
Hey, Good Lookin'	the Hank Williams song
My Head's In Mississippi	ZZ Top's hit single from the current album!!
Oxford Town	another live debut, in Oxford, Mississippi!
Tonight I'll Be Staying Here With You
Visions Of Johanna

The most notable song omission was of course Unbelievable from Under The Red Sky.

The guitarists

G. E. Smith	11, 12, 13 October - the whole shows (?) 15 October - the whole show 16 & 17 October - from song 4 18 October - from song 5 19 October - on songs 1-2, 5-9, 12-20
John Staehely	16 & 17 October - songs 1-3 18 October - songs 1-4 19 October - songs 1-4, 10-11 20 October - November 18 all shows
Steve Bruton	11 & 12 electric guitar and mandolin October
César Diaz	electric guitar on all shows.

Selected BobTalk

Neil Young did that once, played one note on the harmonica, all night long! (after Queen Jane in Nashville, Tennessee, 27 October 1990).

Thank you. It's always a pleasure to play in a school of higher learning, you know. Billy Joel, you know, he never finished high school. It's true, he never did. (before Tomorrow Is A Long Time in Athens, Georgia, 28 October 1990).

Thank you everybody! That's not the way the Byrds did it. They didn't do it exactly that way, but it is close. They did it close. They did it so close (Somebody shouts "I Want You".) Oh, you got to be back here tomorrow night to hear that, yeah tomorrow night ... If tomorrow comes ... We all hope tomorrows gonna come ... This is a song about that. (after Mr. Tambourine Man in Carbondale, Illinois, 3 November 1990).
