1 A SHORT SUBJECTIVE RETROSPECTIVE

The perennial rumour about a longer rest, pursuing other interests, putting an end to The Never-Ending Tour etc, once again proved to be false. This year was business as usual with a new album, four TV performances and 80 shows all over the world. The most pleasant about 1993 was the quality of all these performances, all in all better than 1992 with the grandiose finale at The Supper Club in November.

3 CALENDAR

- 13 January* Dylan appears together with Willie Nelson in the CBS program "A Country Music Celebration". They perform their jointly written Heartland backed by among others Don Was and Jim Keltner.
- 17 January* Dylan makes a surprise appearance at the Bill Clinton Inauguration Concert at Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C., the same place where he thirty years earlier sang Only A Pawn In Their Game during the Washington Rights March. This time he sings Chimes Of Freedom backed by a big band led by Quincy Jones and watched by the presidential family, whose members seem to find the performance great Bill), hilarious (Hilary) and unbelievable (Chelsea).
Later the same night Dylan turns up at the "Absolutely Unofficial Blue Jeans Bash For Arkansas" held at the National Building Museum in Washington. He performs To Be Alone With You backed by Steven Stills and The Band.
- January* Rehearsals in LA still find Ian Wallace in the band. When the tour starts in February he has suddenly left leaving Winston Watson as the only drummer.
- 3-4 February* Continued rehearsals at The Factory in Ringsend, Dublin.
- 5 February* The nth leg of The Never-Ending Tour, the by now almost perennial Europe Winter Tour, starts with a show in Dublin, Ireland. Two songs from Good As I Been To You, Tomorrow Night and Jim Jones make their first appearance, both in the acoustic set.
- 6 February* Dylan joins Van Morrison at his show in Dublin. He plays harmonica on It's All Over Now, Baby Blue but declines to sing. Also on stage at this time are Chrissie Hynde, Kris Kristofferson and Stevie Winwood.
- 7-13 February* For the third time in four years Dylan plays a series of concerts in February at the Hammersmith Apollo (formerly Odeon). All six shows are more or less sold out. This can be contrasted to Paris where two out of three planned shows had to be cancelled due to poor ticket sales.
- 17 February* During the show in Eindhoven, The Netherlands, a girl comes on stage and gets to sing The Time They Are A-Changin' with Bob.
- 25 February* The Winter Tour in Europe ends with a show in Belfast.
- 12 April* The first show of a very short US Spring tour takes place in Louisville, Kentucky. Hard Times from Good As I Been To You played acoustic with the band opens the show. Dylan is from now on to start all his shows, with just a few exceptions, with an acoustic song.
- 23 April* Spring Tour ends at the New Orleans Jazz Heritage Festival.
- 28 April* Recording of "The Big Six-0", the Willie Nelson Birthday Celebration in the Austin City Limits Studios. Dylan performs Pancho And Lefty with Willie Nelson and later Hard Times with his touring band. There is also an interview, parts of which are broadcasted in the TV-program 22May. The whole thing is released on video in early June.

- 30 April Dylan attends Daniel Lanois' "launch party" in New Orleans, for For The Beauty Of Wynona. Dylan watches Lanois and his band perform but does not join them. Lanois dedicates one of the songs to Dylan.
- May World Gone Wrong studio sessions.
- 8 May BBC 2 broadcasts a program called Highway 61 Revisited, which is the final part of a serie called TALES OF ROCK 'N' ROLL. The program is (partly) about Dylan growing up in Hibbing listening to and dreaming about rock 'n' roll and featured childhood friend John Bucklen driving around Hibbing reminiscing. John Bucklen also provided the (so far) earliest tape we have of Dylan, where he and Bucklen sings and talks. Four fragments and some chats were broadcast.
- 6 June Rehearsals start at Studio Instrumental Rentals in New York City, but Dylan is in Ireland on holiday joining the band on
- 12 June in London for the Fleadh Festival where Van Morrison precedes him and later joins Dylan on One Irish Rover.
- 1 July After the show in Barcelona a new song with someone who sounded very much like Dylan was played over the PA system.
- 16 July For the first time ever Dylan has to cancel a show due to medical problems. His ailing back, which first started giving him problems in 1986, forces him to cancel the show in Lyon at a very short notice, the rest of the band is already in Lyon when the decision made.
- 17 July The last show in Bern can be held as planned. Dylan shows no sign of illness, nor does he play a shorter set than usual.
- 18 July Dylan attends a Neil Young show in Bad Mergentheim, Germany and spends some time backstage. Booker T. Jones, who heads Neil's backing band on this tour, tries to get Bob on-stage. Neil introduces All Along The Watchtower, which is the regular last encore with "a song for my friend Bob Dylan, who is near here somewhere, ... maybe just around the corner". Unfortunately Bob decides to stay backstage.
- 21 July The recording of the promotional video for Blood In My Eyes takes place on Camden High Street in North London. Various other pictures in the English newspapers sees Dylan drinking tea in different tea shops and restaurants in the area. The video is directed by David Stewart.
- 22 July Dylan is checking out houses on sale in North London.
- 31 July Dylan is scheduled to appear at a benefit concert for the victims of the Mississippi floods in St Louis. The event, named CONCERT FOR THE HEARTLANDS, has to be cancelled due to the never-ending rain.
- August Mixing/mastering of World Gone Wrong in New York City.
- 20 August The long fall tour opens with a show in Portland, Oregon. This is a joint tour with Santana, with Dylan opening for Santana every other show or so. Dylan's set is now shorter, typically 13 songs in 90 minutes. Unlike 1984, when they toured Europe together, they never appear during each other sets.

- 21 August Dylan and Carlos Santana are interviewed twice in Seattle before the show at the Waterfront. One interview is done by Dennis Michael from CNN and a part is broadcast August 30. The other is done by MTV and snippets are broadcast by MTV in early September.
- 23 August Release of 30th Anniversary Concert Celebration on CD/cassette/video/laser disc. The video formats contain snippets from rehearsals including My Back Pages and It Takes A Lot To Laugh with Eric Clapton, a song planned to appear before My Back Pages but eventually dropped due to time shortage. Song To Woody is omitted from all releases officially due to technical problems with the miking of Dylan's guitar. Most surprising of all Dylan's vocal on My Back Pages is overdubbed! This apparently took place shortly after the event in New York.
- 29 August Dylan is interviewed by Greg Kot of the Chicago Tribune and says that his new album is due soon and that it is similar to the last one "but more structured".
- 31 August Release of Joan Baez: Rare, Live & Classic, a three CD retrospective containing three unreleased duets with Dylan:
- Troubled And I Don't Know Why* from Forest Hills, 17 August 1963,
Mama, You Been On My Mind from the Halloween Concert at the Philharmonic Hall in New York City, 1964 and Blowin' In The Wind from Fort Worth, 16 May 1976.
- Early September Dylan is again interviewed, this time by Jennifer Bowles from New York Post.
- 5 September The soundcheck at the Mountain Ski Resort in Scranton includes Series Of Dreams. It has been heard before during soundchecks in Europe, but then always instrumental or with John Jackson doing the vocals. This time Dylan is present.
- 8 September The first of the shows at the Filene Center in Vienna sees the live debut of Series Of Dreams. This version is still a little unfinished and sadly it is to be the only rendition in 1993.
- After Series Of Dreams Dylan starts Boots Of Spanish Leather for the second time this night. He discovers the mistake after one line and then starts It Ain't Me, Babe
- 9 September The second of the shows in Vienna is professionally filmed
- 9 October The fall tour ends in Mountain View, California after no less than 31 shows. Neil Young joins the band and plays guitar on the last encore, Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat.
- 24 October Release of World Gone Wrong.
- 16-17 November Four acoustic shows are played at The Supper Club on West 47th Street in New York City. 150 tickets to each show are given away at Tower Records in Greenwich on Monday 15.
- All four shows are filmed and the rights kept by Dylan for a possible future "Unplugged" TV-film.
- 19 November Dylan with band appear at Late Night With David Letterman and perform Forever Young.

7 THE NEVER-ENDING TOUR CONTINUES

7.1 Introduction

For the eight year in a row Bob Dylan spent a good deal of his time on the road. This is also the sixth year of the Never-Ending Tour. Rumours in late 1992 had it that Dylan would take a long break. In the end he decided to give it another year. This year he played 80 concerts that up till the joint tour with Santana in the Fall kept getting longer and longer, some over 2 1/2 hours.

The artistic quality from 1992 was maintained and in general the shows got better and better during the year. Seasoned Dylan followers characterized the last show of the year at The Supper Club as Dylan's best show ever!

The 1993 part of The Never-Ending Tour consisted of five new "legs":

1	February	Europe	15 shows
2	April	US	9 shows
3	June-July	Europe	21 shows
4	August-October	US and Canada	31 shows
5	November	New York City	4 shows

7.2 The Musicians

The drummer Ian Wallace left after the New York rehearsals in January, leaving the following band to back Dylan during all the shows in 1993:

John Jackson	electric and acoustic guitar, banjo
Bucky Baxter	pedal steel guitar, lap steel guitar, electric & acoustic slide guitar, dobro, electric mandolin
Tony Garnier	bass
Winston Watson	drums

7.3 The show

The shows were structured as follows:

Main set:	6-7 electric songs
	3-4 acoustic with the band
	2-4 electric
Encores:	1-2 electric
	1 acoustic with the band

The lower figures apply the shorter sets played during the fall tour with Santana.

7.4.4 Comments

For the third time in four years Dylan tours Europe in February, and as usual a set of shows in London at Hammersmith Apollo (formerly Odeon) is included. The set is pretty much the same as at the end of 1992, but two songs from Good As I Been To You, "Jim Jones" and "Tomorrow Night" are now included in the acoustic set. For the first time during The Never-Ending Tour (?) there is a pre-planned light-show, which might explain the small variety in the set list from night to night. At the last show in Belfast one more song from "Under The Red Sky" is played live for the first time: "Born In Time".

Recommended shows

London 11 February, Paris 23 February.

Guests

Dave Stewart joined the band in London on February 9 and 13 both times to play electric guitar on Highway 61 Revisited.

<sup>1</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

<sup>2</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order

<sup>3</sup> electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs

<sup>5</sup> variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs

In Eindhoven a girl from the audience, Liz Souissi from Bern, manage to get on stage and help Dylan sing The Times They Are A-Changin'.

Selected BobTalk

Tonight's show we'll be playing for Nick The Chef. Nick The Chef, he's out there somewhere, this whole show's for him. (after Jim Jones, London 7 February).

This is the bass solo here, give Tony a hand, he's gonna play a solo. This has been rehearsed like a hundred times, we're gonna get rid of this guy. (during Don't Think Twice, where Dylan wasn't too happy with the band, London 7 February).

Thanks everybody! You know we've played this song a million times, but it was just like the first time now. (after The Times They Are A-Changin', London 7 February).

For more BobTalk please consult the session pages for this tour.

7.5.4 Comments

This very short tour ended in New Orleans at the Jazz Heritage Festival and some say the other shows were set up mainly as "warm-ups" for this festival. All shows started with "Hard Times", the third song from Good As I Been To You to get played live.

Recommended shows

Louisville 12 April.

Guests

Dickie Betts played electric lead guitar on Cat's In The Well and Everything Is Broken at the last show.

<sup>6</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

<sup>7</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order

<sup>8</sup> electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs

<sup>10</sup> variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs

7.6.5 Comments

For the fifth year in a row Dylan came to Europe for a summer tour. This time it was really a Mediterranean tour, the only exceptions being the two Fleadh festivals and the Gurten festival in Bern, Switzerland. A new country, Portugal, was added to the Dylan map. The shows were really excellent with Dylan in a better voice than for many years and reportedly much healthier as well. Some even say he's stopped smoking. These European shows will be remembered for their long songs. In Vitoria, Spain 17 songs took 155 minutes, which means that each song in general was longer than 9 minutes! Dylan played lead guitar for most of these shows leaving John Jackson mostly to rhythm guitar work.

The show in Lyon had to be cancelled, reportedly due to Dylan's back problems. They were not evident at the last show in Bern and apparently haven't bother Dylan since then.

Recommended shows

Naples 25 June, Vitoria 2 July and Cascais 13 July.

<sup>11</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

<sup>12</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order

<sup>13</sup> electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs

<sup>15</sup> variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs

Guests

César Diaz, Dylan's guitar technician, played electric guitar on songs 5, 6, 12-15 at the show in Cascais, Portugal on July 13.

Selected BobTalk

Dylan started introducing the band at the end of Maggie's Farm, something he would do during the rest of this years shows, except for The Supper Club Dates.

7.7.4 Comments

The high quality from the shows in Europe, as well as arrangements and song selection were maintained for this long joint tour with Santana. In general the shows were shortened from 17-18 song to 11-13 depending on whether Dylan was opening for Santana or not.

Series Of Dreams, that was heard during the soundchecks in Europe and even was on the que-sheet in Gijon, Spain finally turned up at the first show in Vienna. Two more songs from Good As I Been To You became regulars, You're Gonna Quit Me as opener and Blackjack Davey opening the acoustic set.

Recommended shows

Englewood 23 August, Vienna 8 September, Mountain View 9 October.

Guests

Neil Young came on stage and played guitar during the very last song of the tour, Leopard-Skin Pill-Box Hat in Mountain View, 9 October.

Selected BobTalk

It's always nice to play in my home state! (before the band credits after Maggie's Farm, Falcon Heights 27 August)

<sup>16</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

<sup>17</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order

<sup>21</sup> a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order.

<sup>22</sup> a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

<sup>25</sup> variation is computed as the quote between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

7.8.4 Comments

These shows were all both filmed and recorded. Dylan had been approached by MTV more than once for an unplugged show.

Highlights:

- small but very enthusiastic audience
- similar sets, giving Dylan a wider choice for each song
- all acoustic in new arrangements
- untypical song selection for 1993, only Jim Jones had been a regular in 1993
- first live versions of three songs from World Gone Wrong.

Dylan retained the rights to the recordings (audio and video).

8 NEW BOOKS

The flood of new Dylan books goes on and on. Here's an, no doubt incomplete list:

Claude-Angele Boni: Stuck Inside Of Mobile (With A Rhapsody For Bob Dylan)

Z'Editions 1993, 60 pages.

Tells of the author's meetings with Bob Dylan between 1978 and 1991.

Phil Bowen (ed): Jewels & Binoculars

Stride/Westwords publications 1993.

A collection of poems celebrating Bob Dylan.

Bert Cartwright: The Bible in the Lyrics of Bob Dylan

Revised and updated second edition. 160 pages.

David Castillo: Bob Dylan

Barcelona, July 1992, 150 pages.

Biography in Catalan.

Iglo Editura: Bob Dylan: A Estrada Revisitado

Sao Paolo, 1992

"A songbook with lyrics, but no music". Copyrighted to Bob Dylan, lyrics in English and Portugese. Also includes an illustrated discography, a bibliography and filmography.

Vincente Escudero: Bob Dylan: Luces y Sombras

Editorial La Mascara, 1993. 176 pages.

Biography in Spanish with many photographs.

William McKeen: Bob Dylan: A Bio-Biography

A combination of biography and reference book. 320 pages.

Levon Helm: This Wheel's On Fire. Levon Helm and the story of The Band.

William Morrow, 320 pages.

Barney Hoskyns: Across The Great Divide. The Band and America.

Viking, 440 pages.

Enough interesting material about Bob in these two books to warrant their inclusion here.

John Way: Hungry As A Raccoon (Bob Dylan Talks to his Fans and other Strangers)

1993

Transcripts of the WBAI radio phone-ins, with notes exploring and analysing some of Dylan's responses.

Chris Williams: Bob Dylan In His Own Words, Volume 2

Omnibus Press 1993. Softcover, 112 pages.

Quotes from various interviews grouped together under headings like "Rock'n'roll Lifestyle", "Religion" etc. Lots of nice pictures.

Mike Wyvill & John Wraith: Heading For Another Joint: Bob Dylan's 1992 Concerts

Wanted Man, 54 pages.

Concert listings and comments plus a lot of pictures from The Telegraph
