BobTalk

This is Bob Dylan and I'm in England right now, working, so I can't be there tonight, but I'd like to say that Chabad is a worthy organization helping people in need. Helping to set them free from the misconceptions and devastation which is destroying their lives from within. Of course, this is a fierce battle, for those responsible for poisoning the minds and bodies of America's youth are reaping great profits. If you can help Chabad to help others who have fallen victim to the lies and deceits of those who are much more powerful, do so.

Notes

Broadcast 14 September 1986 by several American TV-stations in a syndicated anti-drug program organized by The Lubavitcher's Chabad Telethon.

A possible date is 20 August.

Stereo TV recording.

Session info updated 16 November 2014.

BobTalk

Pleased for me to be here to give this award to Gordon. I've known Gordon for a long time and I know he's been offered this award before but he has never accepted it because he wanted me to come and give it to him. Anyway, he's somebody of rare talent and all that and here's a videoclip now of his recent and not-so-recent achievements.

All right, here he is now, Gordon Lightfoot!

Can I leave now when you make your speech? I think I will. (off-mike to Gordon Lightfoot).

Notes

Bob Dylan presented the Juno Award to Gordon Lightfoot.

Broadcast by CBC TV, Canada, 11 November.

Mono TV broadcast, 2 minutes.

Session info updated 14 November 2014.
