1 INTRODUCTION

1978 was a hectic year for Bob Dylan. Renaldo & Clara finally premiered and got mostly bad reviews. He went out on a world tour that in the end covered ten different countries with 115 shows! There was a major new record, Street-Legal, the first in more than two years. A compilation, Masterpieces was released in Japan and later in Australia. There was also a live double album from the first part of the world tour in Japan, At Budokan. Dylan gave a lot of interviews to promote both his new movie and the world tour. And then, in the end, a new beginning.

- 12 November L.A. Times publishes the second Robert Hilburn interview.
Sound publishes the John Mankiewicz interview.
- 13-14 November During the shows in Oakland, California, Dylan starts telling long stories: the story about the geek who ate a live chicken at carnivals before playing Ballad Of A Thin Man and the story about the gypsy king at the gypsy festival in the south of France, preceding One More Cup Of Coffee (Valley Below)
- 17 November Another story makes its debut at the show in San Diego, the one preceding Señor (Tales Of Yankee Power), about the old man on the train from Chihuahua to San Diego with burning eyes and with smoke coming out of his nostrils.

It is at the same show that someone throws up a little silver cross onto the stage. Dylan picks it up and puts in his pocket. This little incident turns out to be the start of a new chapter in the life and art of Bob Dylan.
- 18-23 November Dallas Morning News publishes the Pete Opiel interview.
- 19 November Circus Weekly publishes an edited version of the Matt Damsker interview.
- 24 November At the show in the Fort Worth Tarrant County Convention Center Arena Dylan is seen wearing a large metal cross around his neck.
- 2 December An early version of Slow Train is tried at the soundcheck in Nashville, Tennessee.
- 16 December Final concert at the Hollywood Miami Sportatorium includes an early version of Do Right To Me Baby (Do Unto Others).

² a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

³ a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

⁴ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

⁵ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

⁶ variation is computed as the ratio between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

5.4.4 Recommended shows

None, really! At Budokan is a good documentation of this first part of the tour, and it was all to be so much better later on!!

5.4.5 Rare songs from this tour

Some very unusual covers were performed:

Repossession Blues by Roland James - there is also a great rehearsal version!!

I'm A Steady Rolling Man by Robert Johnson

Lonesome Bedroom by Ernest "Buddy" Wilson.

None of these have re-appeared in concert.

Also:

I'll Be Your Baby Tonight

If You See Her Say Hello - with rewritten, rather bitter, lyrics.

One Too Many Mornings

Something There Is About You

The two last did not get played after the Far East Tour.

5.4.6 Songs from Street-Legal

Is Your Love In Vain? was performed on three occasions and is also included on the Budokan album.

5.6.4 Recommended shows

All shows from this part of the tour are very good. Favorites are: Paris 3 and 8 July, Nuremberg, Gothenburg 11 July and of course Blackbushe.

5.6.5 Rare songs from this tour

Gates Of Eden - six solo performances in 1978

A Hard Rain's A-Gonna Fall - the only solo performance in 1978

Oh, Sister - last two performances of an excellent arrangement

¹² a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

¹³ a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

¹⁴ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

¹⁵ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

¹⁶ variation is computed as the ratio between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

5.6.6 Songs from Street-Legal

The following songs made their live debut during the European leg:

We Better Talk This Over - once only in Europe

Where Are You Tonight (Journey Through Dark Heat) - once only in Europe

Changing Of The Guards

True Love Tends To Forget

Is Your Love In Vain could be heard twice. The two last songs from Street-Legal: New Pony and No Time To Think, are still on the list "great songs we're waiting to hear live". They were both tried out in soundcheck at least once.

- Nashville, 2 December
- Charlotte, 10 December -- probably the very best show in 1978!!

5.7.5 Rare songs from this tour

The following songs were played only once:

- 4th Time Around
- Coming From The Heart (The Road Is Long) - co written with Helena Springs but never released
- Do Right To Me Baby (Do Unto Others) - on the last show foreboding the Gospel years to come, as well as the version of Slow Train from a soundcheck
- Love You Too Much - another song written with Helena Springs
- I'll Be Your Baby Tonight
- It Takes A Lot To Laugh, It Takes A Train To Cry

¹⁷ a show is unique if no other show has the same songs in the same order

¹⁸ a show is different from another show if the set of songs are different, regardless of order.

¹⁹ electric and acoustic versions are counted as different songs.

²⁰ a song is counted as unique regardless of how it is performed.

²¹ variation is computed as the ratio between number of different songs and mean number of performed songs.

and the following songs only twice:

- Just Like Tom Thumb's Blues
- Watching The River Flow
- I Threw It All Away

Finally the new song Am I Your Stepchild? was featured regularly in the second set and the version from 13 November in Oakland was used as a music demo. No studio recording of this song has surfaced to date.

Songs from Street-Legal

All songs from the new record except New Pony and No Time To Think were played during the US part of the World Tour. Of these, only Señor (Tales Of Yankee Power) has been played in later years.

5.8 The rehearsals

The rehearsals started in December 1977 and continued through January and the first of February. Rehearsals continued in April before the European tour and there are most likely also rehearsals from May and September, although there are at this point in time no circulating recordings after April. The sound quality of the circulating recordings varies from passable to excellent.

5.9 The soundchecks

There is a unusually large number of recordings from soundchecks from the 1978 World Tour. Although the sound quality varies from utterly dire to listenable, these recordings are of certain interest as the soundchecks often were used to not only to check out the sound but also to try new songs. We have here a number of songs, that are possible new Dylan compositions (* below) and that were shelved for good (?) when Dylan became a new-born Christian and started working on the Slow Train Coming songs.

5.9.1 The dates

Notes

1. Rumoured Dylan composition.
2. Co-written with Helena Springs.
3. Recorded by Eric Clapton and released on Backless.
4. Recorded by Greg Lake, who changed the lyrics somewhat and released it on the album Greg. It is this version that is reprinted in Lyrics 1962-1985. This song is also recorded by The Band and released on their album High On The Hog 1995.
5. Possible Dylan composition performed during soundcheck.
6. Recorded by the Delta Cross Band and released on the album Up Front. No known Dylan recording exists.
7. Early versions with considerable different lyrics compared to the released versions.
