BobTalk:

I was sitting here last night, got the flu. Listen, you got a good place to recover from the flu! <someone in the audience yells something> Oh, could you say that again. OK, this is an old one, my apology song here (coughs). (before Watching The River Flow).

You can play that! I'm not playing it anyway. Go ahead! (to a woman who had entered the stage and tried to pick up one of Dylan's guitars during It Ain't Me, Babe).

OK, we got a drum problem here now. Try without drums? <mumble mumble> We don't have enough drums. (after first song).

Larry, put your hat back on! (before Just Like A Woman).

Note. The last remark was due to the fact that Larry Eden (the famous "Lambchop") had been told by Dylan's road crew to stop waving his silly hat all the time during the concerts. As a result Larry didn't even wear his hat the next concert.
